COME AND SEE US.

Headquarters of the State Central Committee.
The Republican State Central Committee has opened convenient and commodious headquarters on Wisconsin street, near the postoffice, in Milwaukee. All Republicans, and especially those of our own state, are cordially invited to call upon them. The committee will be glad to see you. Come and see us.
H. A. Taylor, Clerk.
C. F. Parker, Sec.

The democratic campaign seems to have been nipped by an early frost.

Not being able to get out of the woods the democratic party is not able to do much crowing.

The path of the democratic party for the past twenty-four years, is strewn with the wreck of its failures.

Mrs. Nilsson is taking mud baths. That is what the democrats are trying to give Mr. Blaine, but the mud won't stick.

One of the issues in the campaign is between the man of brains and the man of brawn. There is a glorious prospect that brawn will win.

The democratic party had a chance to place itself on a vantage ground as to the issues in the campaign, but true to democratic custom it threw the chance away.

Judge Farnham, of Ohio, puts it in this way: "A man good enough to be the head of Mr. Garfield's administration is good enough to have an administration of his own."

Mr. John Kelly, who caused Cleveland to be loved so dearly because he (Kelly) was opposed to him, has the fortune in this campaign to control about 70,000 votes.

The independents are beginning to learn after it is rather late for them to report, that it is the democratic party that is coming into power if Cleveland is elected, and not the independents.

The "wild west" is doing the effective work in this campaign. The brass bands are out, clubs are in marching order, mass meetings are being held, republicans are alive and enthusiastic, and the voice in the wild west is that Blaine will be elected.

The republican side of the tariff is taking deep root in Indiana. The head of the Great Du Pont glass manufactory in New Albany refuses to vote for Cleveland, although he has always been a democrat. This is not an isolated case. There are many such in the Hoosier state.

Carl Solurz will speak in Milwaukee on Saturday, September 6, in German, and the following Monday in English. It will take more than two languages to convince the republicans of Milwaukee that Cleveland is a better man than Blaine, or that the democratic party is a better party than the republican party.

The late W. L. Schaffer, of Philadelphia, had an estate worth more than a million dollars, and having no wife, he made this last will:

PHILADELPHIA, July 8, 1877.
I do hereby give and bequest to my wife, Elizabeth Schaffer, all my real and personal property of whatever description.

Joint discussion between the republican and the democratic candidates for electors in Mississippi proceeded peacefully while the democrat is speaking, but when the republican begins to reply a disturbance is raised, the gas turned off and the audience compelled to disperse. This is one of the "precautions" the democrats are taking to make a democratic majority sure.

Will the republican papers do the democratic party a favor in the hour of its extremity by publishing the following notice from the Globe-Democrat: "Lost, Strayed or Stolen—A democratic candidate for the presidency. Weight 223 pounds; wears a No. 19 collar, No. 10 boot, No. 7 hat, and was last seen on his way to the Adirondacks. Liberal reward will be paid by his sorrowing family and the Democratic National Committee."

A little sermon from the New York Sun: "The Sun has long supported the democratic party and wishes to support it now; but it is becoming tired of standing by it in its fatal and foolish blunders. The nomination of Grover Cleveland is one of these, and the Sun refuses to stand by the party in that nomination. We are happy to add that a very great proportion of the democrats of the country are of the same mind as the Sun."

The democratic managers are without money with which to prosecute the canvass. This is the fault of the independents. Cleveland was nominated for the sole purpose of pleasing the independents, and in justice to the democrats, who have enough to carry already without carrying the independents, the latter should furnish the campaign funds. Why not? Cleveland is their choice, not the choice of the democrats, and they should see that they can

A MENTAL RUIN.

Verdict in the Case of Wilbur F. Storey's Sanity.

The Times Proprietor Declared an Intellectual Ruin—A. L. Patterson Appointed Conservator—Proceedings at the Probate.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—The probate court was crowded this morning with lawyers, newspaper men and curiosity seekers when the examination into the mental condition of Wilbur F. Storey, proprietor of the Times, was begun. The jury selected to try the case was composed of J. J. Quinn, Andrew H. Thompson, J. S. Thompson, Henry Campbell, John C. Ross, A. C. Sollick, George M. Brown, E. G. Brown, C. M. Turner, J. C. Sullivan, R. A. Brown, and M. J. Joyce. At the opening of the case, Judge Trumbull asked the jury to consider the fact that the Times Proprietor had been declared an intellectual ruin by the probate court, and that the court had appointed a conservator to manage his affairs. The jury then retired to consider their verdict.

The republican campaign in Massachusetts is progressing finely. Every day republican bolters are returning to the republican camp. The Boston Traveller says that the republican bolters will not poll 50,000 votes in the entire state. Butler is wrecking the democratic programme. A thorough canvass of the state shows that in Lowell it is evident that Cleveland will run far behind Butler, and in Sumnerville and Cambridge the movement for the general is assuming the character of a stampede. In Fall River, Marlboro, Milford, Lawrence and Haverhill the same state of affairs exists. A conservative old-line democrat said the other day: "I fear Butler is going to pull more votes than I at first supposed. It looks to me now that he may get about 60,000. Cleveland must receive 60,000 republican votes or he stands no chance in this state."

STRAILING PUBLIC LANDS.

Some time ago the commissioner of the public land office was notified that there were numerous frauds being perpetrated in Colorado, Nebraska, Wyoming, New Mexico, and Dakota, concerning the entry of public lands. The government sent out a special agent some months since who has been at work in Colorado, and he reports that enormous illegal seizures of land of the Prairie Cattle company, a foreign corporation, have been made. This single company appears to have illegally secured 316 square miles of land. A list is given of the fraudulent entries in seventeen states and territories, and it is estimated that between 5,000,000 and 6,000,000 acres have been taken from the public domain in the aggregate, while several millions of acres besides have been fraudulently entered. A New Mexico land agent declares that 90 per cent of the entries in that territory are fraudulent, while a Dakota agent estimates the fraudulent entries there at 75 per cent.

The question will naturally be asked, "Is there no way to stop this national scandal?" If there is a way, the government has not yet found it out; and all the laws congress has enacted protecting the public domain from the ravages of foreign corporations have proved a dead letter. It doesn't seem to have any more power to deal with land-stealers than it has with polygamists.

This is a queer state of things, especially when one considers the fact that this is the only country under the sun where bands of foreigners could enter audaciously seize and fence in hundreds of square miles of the public lands, oust the citizens of the country from their holdings by force and arms, refuse to pay taxes or to purchase the land, and in all respects act as though they were in a conquered country, and this with complete impunity.

If there is power enough in the army of the United States to drive out those foreign adventurers and put a stop to these high-handed acts of usurpation, it ought to be drawn out.

ABOUT "STEVE" ELKINS.

One of the most conspicuous men in this campaign is the Hon. Stephen B. Elkins, of New Mexico. He is one of the brightest scholars in the west, and a man more upright, politically, morally, and socially, never filled a public office. Mr. Elkins is a strong republican, not only that, but he is an enthusiastic Blaine man, and is one of the most aggressive political leaders in the southwest. Because he is enthusiastically for Blaine, the independent papers as well as the democratic have dubbed him "Steve," and judging from what one frequently finds in these papers, Mr. Elkins is one of the most corrupt men in this country.

Mr. Elkins is only 42 years of age, and is a graduate of the Missouri University. He is one of the best Latin and Greek scholars in the west. He is a lawyer of far more than average ability. He went to New Mexico ten years ago, became prominent as a republican leader, became a member of the national republican committee, and soon acquired national fame. He is a man of gentle manners and refined tastes, of vigorous intellect, extraordinary tact and energy, of commanding ability, of iron will and unflinching courage, of large wealth, founded on his country's prosperity and destined to increase with the growth of the country. He is a man of domestic rather than of social habits; shunning from crowds and public places, he rarely seen at clubs, or even at hotels except on business. He was never known to smoke or drink, and was a earnest friend of the Presbyterian church.

This is the man whom the democrats and the independents have nicknamed "Steve" Elkins, and have connected him with all sorts of schemes simply because he is enthusiastic for Blaine. It would be just as much out of place to attach all sorts of crimes to the leading independents in New York and Massachusetts, and call them "Buck" Beecher, "Bill" Curtis, "Jim" Clark, "Tom" Higginson, "Hod" White, "Doc" Talmage, as it would to change the christian name of Mr. Elkins, to "Steve."

PARIS, Aug. 31.—The Figaro, in an editorial, comments upon the increase of Egyptian troops in Egypt from 6,000 to 14,000 men, and says an explanation is necessary. It is its opinion that it is the passage of the Nile through the Suez canal in the event of an Anglo-Chinese alliance. The Figaro says France keeps 51,000 troops in Algeria and Tunis who are ready to cross Tripoli and the Cairo when ordered.

Amour de L'Exil.

The celebrated French beauty, formerly courted at the age of seventy, has taken to her bed, and is now suffering from a hemorrhaging sex. Any lady whose toilet affects ticks it should procure SOZOCOLON and use it regularly. Her mirror will soon reflect a row of teeth shining like pearls, and her face as healthy, moist and glowing as a child's. There is a charming contrast with the vermillion tint of the lips. No tooth-ache, no signs of it.

Briefs.

—Marshal Hogan captured one rosy drunk last night, and gave him quarters in the county jail.

—Did you guess right, as to who would secure the nominations in the republican county convention.

—Secretary W. T. Vankirk is hanging out some very attractive illustrated pictures, among the Rock county fair.

—There was a very large attendance at the republican county convention this afternoon, all taking a deep interest in the proceedings.

—The walls of the fifth ward fire cistern have been completed, and the masons are now building the arch. It will be completed and ready for use next week.

—Mr. Sam. Wyler has opened a retail cigar and tobacco store at his factory next door to the Gazette office. He has put in such a splendid assortment of cigars of all prices and grades, and also a general line of chewing tobacco.

—The Beloit Blaine and Logan club meet this evening to make arrangements to attend the grand rally in Madison next Tuesday. They will attend provided the members turn out one hundred strong, which will be a easy thing for that excellent organization to do.

—Mrs. Charles Bowerman is slowly recovering from a severe attack of hemorrhage of the nose, which has occurred at frequent intervals for several days. Mrs. Bowerman is at present very weak from loss of blood, but it is hoped she will soon regain her accustomed strength.

—There will be a special meeting of the Blaine and Logan Invincibles on Monday evening, at their armory, on River street, to make arrangements to attend the grand republican rally in Madison on Tuesday, September 3d. A full attendance of members is requested.

—A reception will be given the Guards to-morrow evening on their return from Milwaukee. All citizens are invited to assist in the matter. Those who desire to participate in this laudable movement, are requested to meet at the Guards' Armory to-morrow afternoon at 3:30, ladies especially.

—The second assembly district committee, whose duty it is to call a convention to elect two delegates to the congressional convention to be held in Chicago on September 10th, consists of Messrs G. H. Darby, J. C. Brownell, J. D. King, M. M. Phelps, Q. O. Sutherland, of this city, G. H. Barker, of Janesville town, and N. W. Tripp, of Rock.

—The question of putting a concrete sidewalk around the high school block is now being talked of. There is no good reason why it should be neglected longer. Resident property owners are compelled to keep their sidewalks in passable shape for pedestrians, and the city further should be held to the same rule as regards property under their care.

—The political cauldron was foaming over to-day, and it was not until the republican county convention was called to order that the place seethed called untouching the delegates. The delegates were all representative men from their respective constituencies, and were well informed as to the business before them. The proceedings of the convention will be found in another column of this evening's Gazette.

—The Jersey jacket is the latest thing out in the shape of a handy, comfortable and dress garment for gentlemen. It is just the thing for the workshop, office or street, in any kind of business or profession. It is a garment that will recommend itself to all classes on first sight. J. L. Pletcher has them on sale at his clothing store, M. C. Smith block, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets. Look at them, and you will not go away without one.

—On Wednesday evening, as the night passenger train from this city was approaching Brodhead, running at the usual rate of speed, a farmer drove onto the track just ahead of the engine. Toof! toof! toof! blew the whistle, and the engineer noticed the wreck lying in the air. The train was stopped and backed up to the pick up the dead.

The man who was driving the team was found sitting on the track; his wagon and hay rack were knocked into splinters, and the team had taken to the woods. So far as learned the man and horse escaped injury. One passenger says the man was thrown up in the air as high as the top of the telegraph poles.

PERSONAL.

—Dr. M. G. Hodze has returned from his vacation, and will preach as usual next Sunday.

—Miss Minnie Ely left to-day for a few weeks' visit with relatives in Madison and La Crosse.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cook have returned home from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in New Hampshire, and eastern cities.

—Miss Maggie O. Mount, who has been spending the vacation in Janesville and vicinity, returned to Chicago yesterday, to resume her work in the public schools there.

—The South Bend (Ind.) Register: "Frank Wheelock, of Janesville, and Eldon Cusack, of Madison, Wis., are in the city, visiting the family of Mr. George Wheelock, at No. 314, West Jefferson street."

—Mr. Charles Bowerman, of the third ward, returned yesterday from Huron, Dakota, where he has been during the past two months looking after his property there.
